THRIFT

If thrift does not come natural to you, cultivate it. Realize the fact that every man who has a dollar put aside is a capitalist.

We earnestly urge you to open an account with this bank for any sum. Either a Checking or a Savings account, in addition to being convenient encourages you not to use your money except in a wise way.

The prosperity you enjoy today does not guarantee you prosperity tomorrow. Changes in the business and industrial world may later on deprive you of your present measure of prosperity.

On Railroads Co-operating With the Farmer

Co-operation is a theme that lends itself most readily to theory but yields stubbornly to practice. It is easy to speak the word but difficult to understand it and more difficult still to practice it. All can be selfish but it takes vision to be progressive. The organized farmer has been preaching co-operation for a long many years, but new come the railroads talking co-operation in the language of the soil.

A recent paper read by G. E. Cassel, publicity agent of the Norfolk & Western railway, is so full of horse sense that we reproduce it in part and urge the farmers along that roadway to continued co-operation with the management of the road in all problems of mutual interest. Farming and land transportation. They are the basis of pretty nearly all wealth. When they fall the whole country falls. Therefore, how important it is that these two should fully understand each other, and work together not only for their own commercial advancement but for the prosperity of the nation.

The farmers and the railroads are natural allies in all their interests. It is difficult to conceive of greater service to the commonwealth than that of firmly fixing in the minds of both the railroads and the farmers that they are mutually dependent and that the prosperity of one depends on the prosperity of the other, but that suspicion and misunderstanding destroy the various interests of both. Many of the most progressive and far-seeing railroads have fully recognized this relation and dependence.

In the study of economic conditions in all branches of human endeavor, from the birth of our nation down to within quite recent years, we are astonished at the utter lack of the co-operative principle—the "work together idea"—and not only that, but extreme selfishness and prebend prejudices have more apparently dominated in the different branches of trade and other avenues of enterprise. This was a condition that government could not remedy. No statute law, or even written constitution, can do more than safeguard these inalienable rights of the individual.

The mutual advantages of co-operation and sympathetic understanding are many and varied for both the railway and the farmer. The farmer is peculiarly dependent upon rapid and cheap transportation. His products are always comparatively bulky and frequently perishable. The railroads give him a worldwide market for their products. An intelligent understanding of the fundamental improvement of railway transportation is essential to the prosperity of any agricultural community. Worldwide and nationwide markets are made possible only by regular and cheap transportation such as is offered by the railroads.

So the farmer may conclude that when he co-operates with the railroads, his most potent allies, he is doing good for himself and much good for his country.

While there's leaves in the forest and foam on the river,
The farmers and railroads shall flourish forever.

MEETING OF PAVING COMMISSION HELD

ACCEPTED WEST MARKET STREET PAVING JOB

RIVER STREET NEXT

North Main Street Will Not Be Ready for Paving Until Six Weeks More.

At a meeting of the paving commission held yesterday afternoon the paving job on West Market street was accepted from the Southern Paving company and the matter of deciding what street should be paved after South Main was finished was acted upon. After due discussion it was decided that the work be continued down River street.

Before the meeting was called to order in the city hall members of the paving commission and Supt. Craney of the Southern Paving company took a ride over West Market street on the fire truck in order to inspect the paving job.

After they returned to the city hall the meeting was called to order by Chairman Horton.

The first business transacted was that of accepting the West Market street job and this was done in due order.

Attention was then called to the petition which had been sent in by property owners on East Orr street in which it was stated that they wanted this street paved. This petition was received as information.

Since the pulp committee of the First Baptist church are planning to hold a special service for Dr. John E. White, on Sunday, September 5, this committee asked the paving on Church street be finished from McDuffie to the church by that time if possible in order that it might be used. It was pointed out that the concrete base was down already and that all that remained to be done was the asphalt binder and the surface. Supt. Craney was asked if he would have this done and he consented readily.

The next matter taken up was that of whether the paving should be first started on River street or on North Main. This brought about considerable discussion, one member stating that since North Main was the principal thoroughfare in the city it certainly ought to be paved as soon as possible. The city engineer and members of the commission pointed out that it was almost a physical impossibility to go to this street before River since the grading had not been placed and the water pipes had not been put down. It was stated that it would take nearly six weeks to get North Main ready for the paving. Mr. H. A. Orr appeared before the commission and stated that after the South Main street car track paving had been finished, the forces would have to either go to River street or to Greenville street, since they could not do their work on North Main until the city had had the grading done.

After further discussion a motion was passed that the work on River street be taken up next.

A motion was also passed requesting city council to have its part of the grading on North Main street done as soon as possible.

NEGRO SHOTS ONE; FIRES AT ANOTHER

ROW STARTED AT CHURCH IN LOWER SECTION OF COUNTY

PLACED IN JAIL

Negro is Badly Wounded and Death May Result—Occurred on Wednesday Night.

A negro named Oscar Corley was brought to the city yesterday morning by Officer Ira E. Whiles of Iva, it being charged that he had shot and wounded Will Scott, another negro and had also fired at Phate Sherard, also colored. He was placed in jail awaiting the outcome of the wounds of Scott. The trouble is said to have started about Sherard's wife.

It seems that there was a meeting of some kind at Cross Roads church, about a mile and a half from Iva and after services Corley and Scott had a few words. Corley drew his pistol, a .32 calibre and fired at Scott, the bullet taking effect in his right thigh and breaking his leg. Scott fell to the ground and then Corley fired three more shots at him as he lay upon the ground.

Not content with the shooting of Scott, Corley went on to the home of Phate Sherard at the Jackson Mill at Iva and called him to the door. Sherard seeing who it was closed the door in Corley's face. The latter then went around to the window and fired at Sherard who was inside his own home, the shot going wild.

Mr. Wiles was informed of the trouble about 2:30 yesterday morning and he went to Corley's home and made the arrest. The negro is said to have had his suit case and was about ready to make the return trip to Georgia from whence he moved to Iva about two years ago.

Deputy Williams has in his possession a note which is said to be from the Sherard woman to Corley when it is stated that he (Corley) had better do something with Scott and Sherard. It is not known yet whether she will be brought into the case or not.
